Invoering

?Beaumont Hamel bestaat a call which inspires appalling visions of the catastrophic opposite suffered by manspersoon of VIII Corps, British Fourth Army on 1st July 1916, while heaps of vent have been killed and wounded for no profits in any respect. Ninety years on, the events of that day still exert a powerful fascination for those involved in the fantastic trench battles.

This e book, which covers the Old Front Line from Redan Ridge to the Ancre, describes how the protection of the region became so strong, the reasons for German early success in the course of the war and explains how the British defeat of July was transformed into victory, while the fall of Beaumont Hamel marked the very last flicker of achievement, earlier than the conflict was mired to a standstill ter the dust.
